The Stone which the Builders Refused.
Every Royal Arch mason will thank Brother Cammack for the following extracts from Spurgeon:
I have heard a story—I cannot tell whether it is true or not—of some of the Jewish Rabbis; it is a tale concerning the text—"The stone which the builders refused, the same is become the headstone of the corner." It is said when Solomon's temple was building, all the stones were brought from the quarry ready-cut and fashioned, and there were marked on all the blocks the places they were to be put. Amongst the stones was a very curious one; it seemed of no describable shape. It appeared unfit for any portion of the building. They tried at this, but it would not fit; they tried it in another, but it could not be accommodated; so, vexed and angry, they threw it away. The temple was so many years building that this stone became covered with moss, and grass grew around it. Everybody passing by laughed at the stone; they said Solomon was wise, and doubtless all the other stones were right; but, as for that block, they might as well send it back to the quarry, for they were quite sure it was meant for nothing. Year after year rolled on, and the poor stone was still despised; the builders constantly refused it. The eventual day came when the temple was to be finished and opened and the multitude was to see the grand sight. The builders said "Where is the top stone? Where is the pinnacle?" They little thought where the crowning marble was, until some one said "Perhaps that stone, which the builders refused, is meant to be the top stone." They then took it, and hoisted it to the top of the house; and, as it reached the summit, the found it well adapted for the place. Loud hosannas made the welkin ring, as the stone which the builders refused thus became the headstone of the corner. So it is with Christ Jesus. The builders cast him away. He was a plebeian, he was of poor extraction, he was a man acquainted with sinners, who walked in poverty and meanness; hence, the worldly-wise despised him. But when God shall gather together in one, all things that are in heaven and that are in earth, then Christ shall be the glorious consummation of all things.
"Christ reigns in Heaven, the topmost stone, And well deserves the praise!"
He shall be exalted, he shall be honored; his name shall endure as long as the sun, and all nations shall be blessed in him: yea, all generations shall call him blessed.

THE PHARMACIST'S TOAST—May his occupation never become a drug in the market, as long as he sticks like his own plasters, to business! May he never be bruised in the mortar of adversity by the pestle of misfortune, and may his rise in his profession be as accurately marked as his graduated measure! May his career be as unswerving as distilled water and as smooth and pleasant as pure Narbonne honey! May his success never be alloyed by a mixture of ill-luck or a tincture of regret! May his counter prove the crucible whereby he transmutes human ailments into precious metal and precipitates the golden deposit into his own pocket! May he never be called upon to swallow the bitter pill of disappointment or be macerated in the bitter spirit of enmity! Should fickle fortune ever refuse him her smiles, may he find an antidote in the soothing opiate of woman's love, be strengthened by the tonic of experience and purified by the sudorific of patience! Thus, his best days being evaporated and the lamp of existence past trimming, when Dr. Death sends to his ship the dreadful prescription endorsed "To be taken at bedtime," may he be found "carefully prepared," accurately dispensed, permanently entered in the day book of memory, neatly put up in the white wrapper of purity, sealed up with the melting tears of friends, stamped with the trade-mark of honesty and duly labelled and directed for heaven!

NICE MATHEMATICS—"And now, children," remarked Professor Hall in one of the public schools the other day, "if a family consisting of father and mother and seven children should have a pie for dinner, how much would each one receive?" "Why," remarked the bright boy, "each would get an eighth." "But there are nine persons, you must remember." "Oh! I know that; but the mother wouldn't get any. There wouldn't be enough to go around."—Albany Journal.

MEDICINAL.

Wake Up.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.

THURSDAY, MAY 15th, 1890, will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Market House of Alexandria city, a part of the real estate and fisheries, the late Philip Otterback deceased, consisting of—
1st. THE TRACT OF LAND called "OPOSSUM NOSE," containing 1,034 acres, more or less, lying in Prince William county, and fronting about one mile and a half on the Potomac river and one mile on Quantico creek. Some 400 acres of this tract is cleared and in cultivation, and on that portion is a GOOD DWELLING HOUSE and all the necessary outbuildings. The residue is well timbered, there being a great quantity of hard and pine wood. The soil is excellent and easily improved.

The "HIGH POINT" SHAD AND HERRING FISHING SHORE is one of the oldest, best known and most profitable on the river.
